

ANGLO-SAXON KINGDOMS

24 January 2019

Featuring the Lindisfarne Gospel (circa 700) and the giant Bible known as Codex Amiatinus (circa 715), as well as many other precious illuminated manuscripts

When the British Isles still were Orthodox

A one-day visit to London for the exhibition, with Vespers at St George Orthodox Cathedral

Itinerary (all times are approximate):

- 09.00 Leave from Saint Dunstan's, Poole
- 10.00 Stop at Southampton Airport Parkway
- 12.30 Arrival at British Library, comfort break
- 13.30 Guided tour of the exhibition, followed by free time to explore
- 16.30 High Tea (including sandwiches and cakes) at one of the cafés in the British Library
- 17.30 Leave the British Library for St George Orthodox Cathedral
- 18.00 Vespers
- 19.00 Return to Poole (arrival 22.30) via Southampton (arrival 21.30)

Price: £ 65.00

(includes all transport, entry to the British Library, guided tour, and High Tea)

No children younger than 14. Bring a sandwich or refreshment if you wish.

Minimum number participants required for this outing: 46, otherwise it will be cancelled.

✂-----

I register for the one-day trip to the Anglo-Saxon Kingdoms Exhibition on 24 January 2019 at a cost of £ 65.00.

Name: .....

Address: .....

Number of people: ..... x £ 65.00 = Total cost £ .....

I enclose a deposit of £ 20 per person (cash preferred, for online PayPal please use the button on the Home Page with reference Anglo-Saxon Kingdoms). I understand this is fully refundable only if the trip does not take place due to lack of interest. Full payment to be received by 15 January 2019. To email your form, send to saint-dunstan@gmx.com.

Return this form with the deposit by Sunday 23 December 2018.